Conference Location

The IET International Conference on Wireless Communications and Applications 2012 will be hosted by Sunway University situated in a thriving fully-integrated township in proximity to the bustling Subang Jaya town and is connected to Kuala Lumpur city by an efficient network of public transportation. The University is located in the Sunway Integrated City Campus spanning an impressive 7-million square feet and is home to world-class retail, hospitality, leisure and healthcare amenities, and residential properties. It offers the advantages of a safe university town lifestyle with high technology surveillance cameras and hundreds of auxiliary police and security guards. Everything is within walking distance connected by pedestrian-friendly tracks, allowing students to fully immerse in an all-encompassing campus township lifestyle.

Conference Venue

The conference venue will be held at the Graduate Centre. It consists of a 150 seat lecture theatre and 3 auditoriums in tiered semi-circle seating formation. There is also a landscaped breakout courtyard, pre-function areas, discussions and lecture rooms. It will also be equipped with up to date facilities and sound systems.
